Bond yields decline on strong demand as foreign inflow adds RM1.4 billion

Yields on Malaysian Government Securities (MGS) and Government Investment Issues (GII) continued to decline this week, supported by strong domestic demand, solid auction results and renewed foreign investor interest despite ongoing geopolitical risks in the Middle East.

Market data showed MGS and GII yields fell between 1.1 basis points and 2.7 basis points during the week.

The benchmark 10-year MGS yield declined 2.4 basis points to 3.553 per cent, while the 10-year GII yield fell 1.6 basis points to 3.570 per cent.

Analysts said the stronger performance was largely driven by healthy domestic appetite for government bonds, highlighted by a robust 20-year MGS auction that recorded a bid-to-cover ratio of 2.88 times, reflecting solid investor demand.

Investor sentiment was also lifted by S&P Global's positive rating outlook on Malaysia, which reinforced confidence in the country's improving fiscal position, narrowing budget deficits and stable macroeconomic fundamentals. – Business Today

KLCCP's sukuk programme upsized to RM4 bil

KLCCP Stapled Group's (KL:KLCC) sukuk programme has been upsized to RM4 billion from RM3 billion.

The upsize, together with a revision in certain terms and conditions, has been lodged with the Securities Commission Malaysia on April 17, according to its bourse filing on Friday.

The upsize and revision took effect on April 16 this year, and will be applicable to all outstanding and subsequent sukuk murabahah issuances. The issuer of the programme, which has a perpetual tenure, is its special purpose vehicle, Midciti Sukuk Bhd.

Following the upsize, a RM500 million tranche was issued on Friday. It carries a 10-year tenure with an annual profit rate of 3.86%. Proceeds will be used to refinance its outstanding sukuk murabahah of RM500 million, maturing on Friday.

The sukuk murabahah programme has a long-term rating of AAA/Stable by RAM Rating Services Bhd. The programme was initially established in April 2014. – The Edge Malaysia

Treasury yields tick lower after DOJ drops Fed probe, paving the path for Senate to vote on Warsh

U.S. Treasury yields ticked lower Friday after the Justice Department abandoned a criminal investigation into Federal Reserve Chair Jerome Powell, paving the way for the Senate to vote on nominee Kevin Warsh as his replacement to head the central bank.

The yield on the 10-year U.S. Treasury note — the benchmark for mortgages, credit card debt and auto loans — was down more than 1 basis point at 4.306%.

The 2-year Treasury note yield, which more closely tracks short-term Federal Reserve interest rate policy, dropped more than 4 basis points to 3.78%.

Yields have moved higher the past week as crude oil prices have climbed. Last Friday, the 10-year Treasury note yielded 4.244% and the 2-year stood at 3.70%. A barrel of West Texas Intermediate crude oil is higher by more than 12% this week.

The Department of Justice move Friday to drop a criminal investigation into Federal Reserve Chair Jerome Powell removed a major hurdle to the Senate confirming Kevin Warsh, President Donald Trump's nominee to replace him. – CNBC
